The object of such provisions in municipal charters is to give the city opportunity, for the protection of the treasury, to investigate such claims. The notice is sufficient if it gives particulars which will enable the city to perform this public duty, and we cannot see why the notice in question did not perform this function. How can it be said that a statement of injury to the head does not embrace an injury to the eye Z The defendant s counsel contends that this statute is to be strictly construed, citing S/tee/ry v. T /re Cit 1/ of New York (29 App. Div. 263). That decision was based mainly on the fact that the notice did not express any intention to sue the city,...
