Ballantine. 1 Cloth(s), 2014. hard. Book Condition: New. Much has been written about the enduring marriage of founding father John Adams and his wife; however, Abigail Adamsnée Smithshared equally strong bonds with her sisters Mary Cranch, who became the de facto mayor of her village, and Elizabeth Shaw Peabody, who with her husband founded the country's second coeducational school. "Never sisters loved each other better than we," wrote Abigail to Mary in 1776, and they relied on near-constant letters to buoy them through pregnancies, illnesses, grief, political upheaval, and, for Abigail, life in the White House. Illustrated with documents and period art throughout, this book weaves a tapestry from the lives and shared thoughts of these progressive and outspoken women."In a beautifully wrought narrative, Diane Jacobs has brought the high-spirited, hyperarticulate Smith sisters, and the early years of the American republic, to rich, luminous life. A stunning, sensitive work of history." Stacy Schiff"Beauty, brains, and breedingElizabeth, Abigail, and Mary had them all. This absorbing history shows how these close-knit and well-educated daughters of colonial America become women of influence in the newly begotten United States. Jacobs's feel for the period is confident; so is her appreciation of the nuances of character." Daniel Mark Epstein 499.
