Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In light of the increase in tensions between our nations police departments and the urban communities they serve, this book offers a timely remedy for citizens and officers alike. The author skillfully takes us on a journey of his struggles to start the healing process from within the walls of the Atlanta Police Department. Chapter after chapter, he takes us on patrol to expose the myriad issues which have become systemic practices of law enforcement agencies across the country. Page after page, through his experiences, he wittingly, and Sometimes, humorously offers solutions and answers to long standing issues contributing to the mistrust and lost respect between our nations domestic heroes and the citizens they re sworn to serve and protect. Ride along as the author takes us on a 28 years tour of duty which singlehandedly seeks to resolve some of the most prevalent age old problems facing officers and their chain of command; and how agencies execute their oath of office in some of our nations larger urban communities. This book also offers helpful instructions for all occupations and every type of profession. This book is more than just one man s story. It s a book of remedies and solutions for officers, agency heads, corporate CEOs and citizens alike.
