Gareth Stevens Publishing, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 257 x 208 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Criminal profiling is one of the newest approaches to combating crime. Profilers tackle a wide range of challenges. They investigate when, why, and where crimes take place. They study the criminal mind to not only track down perpetrators but also to figure out ways to reduce the crime rate. In this high-interest book, readers explore theories of criminology and examine how these concepts are being employed in police work. They discover how technology is aiding police in pinpointing areas where crimes are likely to occur so they can better protect the public. The text also highlights the wide variety of career choices available to those interested in law enforcement.
