These were set when the seed of the nursery was sown, four years ago, some of which are in fruit the present year. Your committee were so much gratified and instructed by the manner in which Mr. Saunderson manages his whole farm operations, that we have taken the liberty to subjoin the following statement of Mr. Saunderson in a private letter to the chairman. Though our place was not entered for a premium, yet, by your request, we forward you a statement of the manner in which we manage our farming operations. We improve 100 acres of land---40 in mowing and tillage, and 00 in pasture. To renovate and improve the pasturing, we have adopted a custom, which, if continued, will, we think, tend greatly to improve that part of the farm. This is to plow them once in five years, roll and harrow...
